

CODE

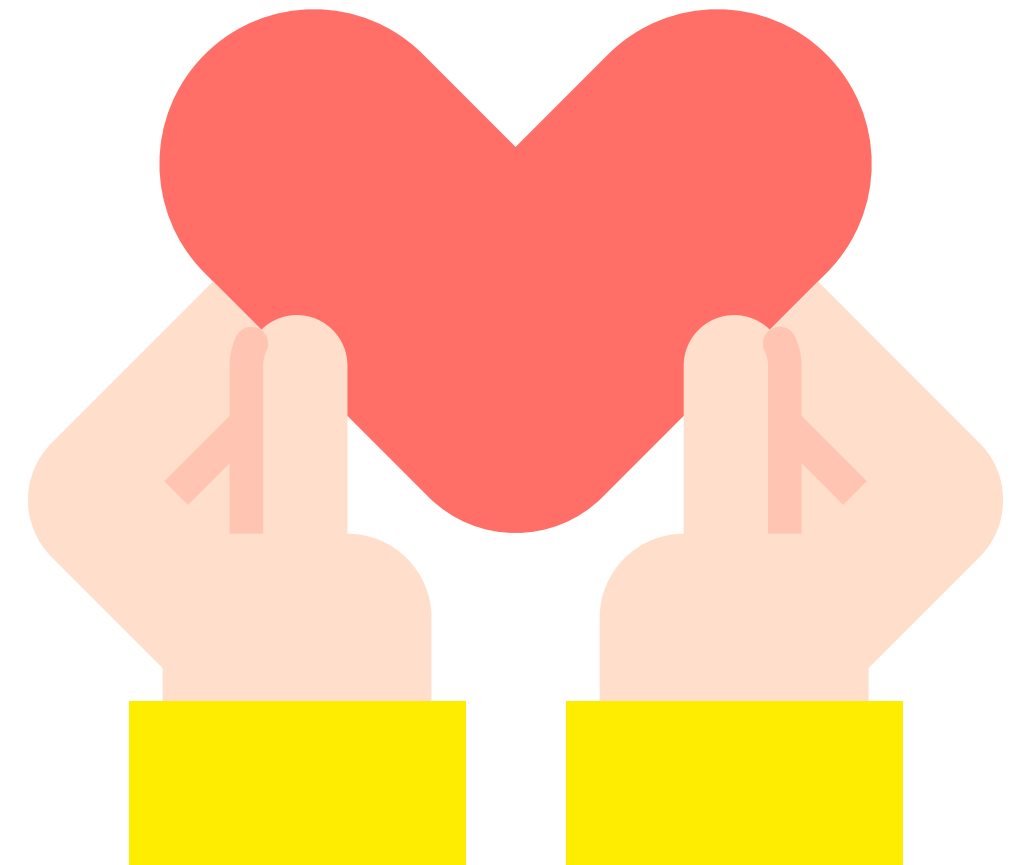

OF CON

DUCT

—

— relations based on mutual respect and effective effort.

1. INTRODUCTI ON

At Finsa Group, we have known since our origins, more than 90 years ago, that without a solid foundation of principles to support the different value propositions we offer to society, it is not possible to maintain relations based on trust between people and on professional performance.

It is our trust in this code of conduct anchored in our values that today permits us to put it in writing, knowing that it commits us and is required of all of us, regardless of the role or position we occupy in the Organization, and that it will serve as a reference to continue maintaining relations based on mutual respect and effective effort.

We thank you for maintaining your commitment to complying with it and we hope it helps you in the performance of your work anywhere in the world. If you have doubts about the understanding of what is said in it or if you perceive difficulties in its application, do not hesitate to discuss it with the people in the Personnel Department, the Legal Counsel of Finsa Group, or the Compliance Officer.

Finsa Board of Directors

effort, and seeing mistakes as learning opportunities. Teamwork, being participative, counting on all opinions, seeking the common interest.

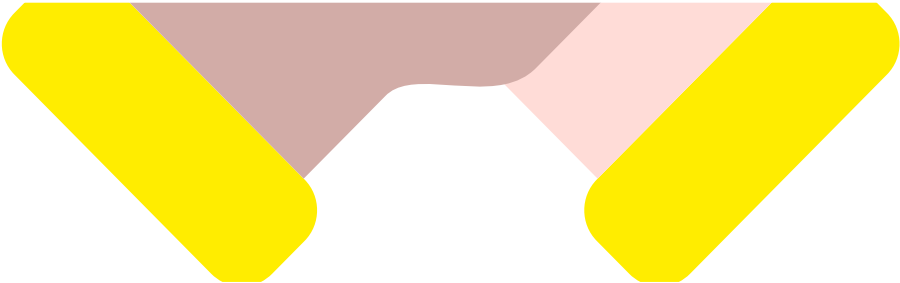

Thus, we aspire to a culture based on shared values, developed on two fundamental principles: mutual respect and effective effort.

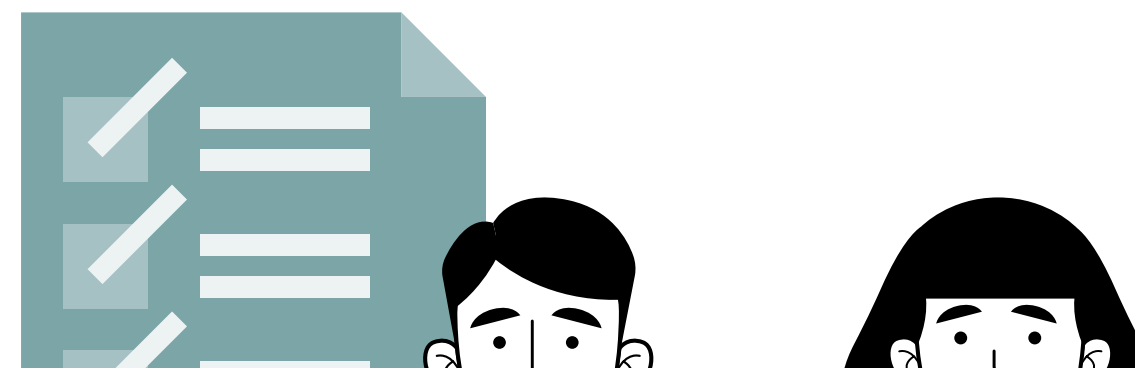

C
O
DE OF
C
O
ND
UC
T
FI
NS
A
G
R
O
UP

2. OUR VALUES

Values are one of the basic pillars that define the character and identity of a company. At Finsa, we are fully convinced that our business culture must guide our day-to-day actions.

Effective effort It is essential to guarantee the sustained generation of resources that ensures our autonomy in building the company we would like to work in. We need-

We see as necessary the participation of all people in the dissemination and compliance of health and safety regulations at work, within the scope of our functions, for our own safety, and that of all people who could be affected by the performance of our activity.

3.

I. We are committed to the safety and health of people.

We consider protecting the safety and health of people a priority, and that is why we commit to maintaining and promoting the adoption of health and safety measures, in order to provide everyone with a safe and healthy environment in our workplaces, as well as to ensure compliance with the applicable regulations in this matter in all places where we carry out our business activity.

II. We are committed to labor relations based on trust and continuous improvement.

People are the main asset of the organization, and therefore we promote development and training, so that each person, with their intelligence and ingenuity, can continue maintaining and improving their contribution to the evolution of the Organization.

We maintain a relationship with people who perform social representation functions based on trust, dialogue, and respect. We need their contribution in maintaining and developing the best working conditions for people and in building the value propositions we offer to the market.

III. We defend diversity, equal opportunities, and non-discrimination.

We promote the development of relationships based on criteria of respect and non-discrimination. We all have the responsibility to help guarantee a work environment free of discrimination, intimidation, abuse, sexual harassment, and/or harassment based on sex. It is fundamental to guarantee equal treatment and opportunities among people, regardless of their race, ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation, political orientation, gender, age, disability, or any other personal or social condition.

IV. We promote environmental care.

We believe that using wood from forests with sustainable forest management, as well as using recyclable materials, contributes to fighting climate change and its effects and to the development of the circular bioeconomy.

In our manufacturing processes we will promote the use of recycled wood, we will use wood that comes from properly managed forests, and we will comply with the requirements established in the reference forest certification systems PEFC (PEFC/14-35-00006), FSC® (FSC-C041397), EPD®, EUTR, to guarantee sustainable management and the legal origin of the wood.

We will allocate resources to improve the efficient use of energy, the use of natural resources, and the reduction of carbon emissions, in order to limit as much as possible the impact of our activity on the environment.

We will work to ensure that the environmental perspective is integrated into all processes we carry out in the organization and in the value propositions we offer to the market.

V. We will use the information we have access to responsibly and we will never do so for personal benefit.

We understand the responsibility we assume when processing personal data, and therefore we commit to protecting it and guaranteeing its confidentiality.

Likewise, in addition to personal data, we consider to be of a confidential nature, among others, all internal business processes, financial, commercial, business, and corporate reports, budgets, product formulas, and business strategy documents. We will never use the information we have access to for personal benefit.

In order to protect this information, only people who have authorization to do so may transfer confidential data or information to third parties.

We will responsibly use the Company's resources for the development of professional activity (information, materials, supplies, software, facilities, etc.) and we will follow the guidelines established for the use of mobile and IT devices.

VI. We commit to making a responsible use of the Company's goods and services.

We trust the judgment of people for requesting and using the means they require to perform their work.

We will responsibly use the Company's goods and services and we will not use them for our own benefit.

VII. We believe in a relationship of integrity and transparency with our suppliers and partner companies, and we respect the independence of judgment of those who participate in recruitment processes.

We consider suppliers and partner companies a fundamental part of our chain.

Any supplier or company that considers that it can help us improve and has the necessary means can contact the different purchasing services of Finsa Group, where they will be properly assisted. The selection processes for suppliers and companies will be carried out taking into account objective and impartial criteria that address the availability of necessary products or services, quality, collaboration, and contribution.

No partner company or person will obtain a benefit in the relationship if they try to gain the favor of any person from our organization by methods other than strictly professional ones.

All recruitment processes will guarantee the independence of judgment of the people who participate in them, and no recommendation or consideration about any person who is or may be in a recruitment process will be accepted or taken into account.

VIII. We avoid conflicts of interest.

Conflict of interest can appear in those circumstances where the interests of people or people connected to them may not coincide with those of the Company, directly or indirectly, or may interfere with the performance of their functions.

When this happens, people will inform the Company of the situation to try to find a solution to the potential conflict. Until said conflict is resolved, people will refrain from representing the Company, from intervening or influencing decision-making in any situation in which they directly or other people connected to them have a direct or indirect personal interest.

In order to avoid conflict, unless expressly authorized by the Company, we may not perform work or provide services for other companies that compete or may compete with Finsa Group companies.

IX. We take care of our image and reputation also in the media and social networks.

We consider that our image and reputation is the result of a relationship with people based on mutual respect and freedom of expression. We are all responsible with our behavior for taking care of the image and reputation of the company.

With the rise of communication media and social networks, it is important to understand that any shared information about Finsa Group companies can become public. Therefore, we must always act with discretion and never reveal private or confidential information without prior authorization.

If we have a presence on social networks, we will differentiate our personal profile from our professional profile, in order to easily identify when we are acting on behalf of Finsa Group companies and when we do so in a personal capacity.

X. We will always make a moderate, transparent, and respectful use of gifts, presents, and hospitality.

We consider that hospitality and invitations to customers and suppliers, or received from them, must respond to criteria of moderation, transparency, and suitability to local practices and customs.

In the performance of our duties, we do not accept gifts; they will only be permitted when:

- They are of negligible, symbolic economic value or promotional items of low value.
- They correspond to signs of courtesy or usual commercial hospitality according to local practices.
- They are delivered or received transparently and occasionally.
- They are not prohibited by law or generally accepted business practices.

When they do not comply with all these conditions, we will reject or return them, explaining the reasons, and if this is not possible, we will hand them over to the Personnel Department for their management.

— We are all responsible for our behavior.

XI. We respect and protect Intellectual Property, Industrial Property, and trade secrets.

For its contribution to the development and maintenance of our Company, we value, respect, and protect patents, trademarks, trade and industrial secrets, and all other information subject to intellectual and industrial property rights of the Company. Intellectual and industrial property created by people of any Finsa Group company will be the property of the Company.

Likewise, we will respect third-party intellectual and industrial property rights. In this sense, we will maintain the confidentiality of third-party information we have access to in the performance of our activity...

XII. We favor free competition and good market practices.

We consider that respecting and complying with competition defense regulations is not only a legal obligation, but is part of our responsibility to customers, suppliers, and consumers in general.

Therefore, we will internally promote the development and maintenance of good market practices.

XIII. We trust in the integrity and honesty of people and we are against corruption and bribery.

We believe that the performance of our work and the practices we carry out in the Company must contribute to maintaining the integrity and honesty of people.

In this sense, we may not receive, offer, or deliver, directly or indirectly, any cash payment, payment in kind, or any other benefit to any person in the service of any entity -public or private-, political party, or candidate for public office, with the intention of illicitly obtaining or maintaining business or other advantages.

XIV. We value the contribution and rigor of accounting, tax, and financial functions.

At Finsa, we properly account for, record, and document all transactions, without omitting, concealing, or altering any data or information; thus, our accounting and operating records faithfully reflect reality, in accordance with the accounting and legal regulations in force, and they can be verified both internally and externally.

On the other hand, compliance with current tax legislation and all tax obligations resulting in the payment of taxes in all territories in which it operates is an acquired and respected duty of the company.

XV. We believe in rigor and transparency in managing public aid.

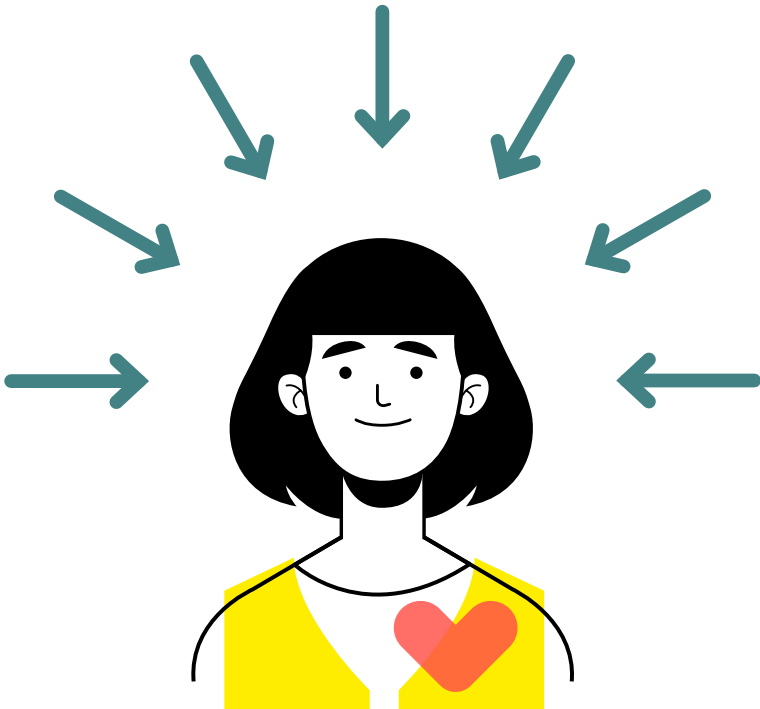

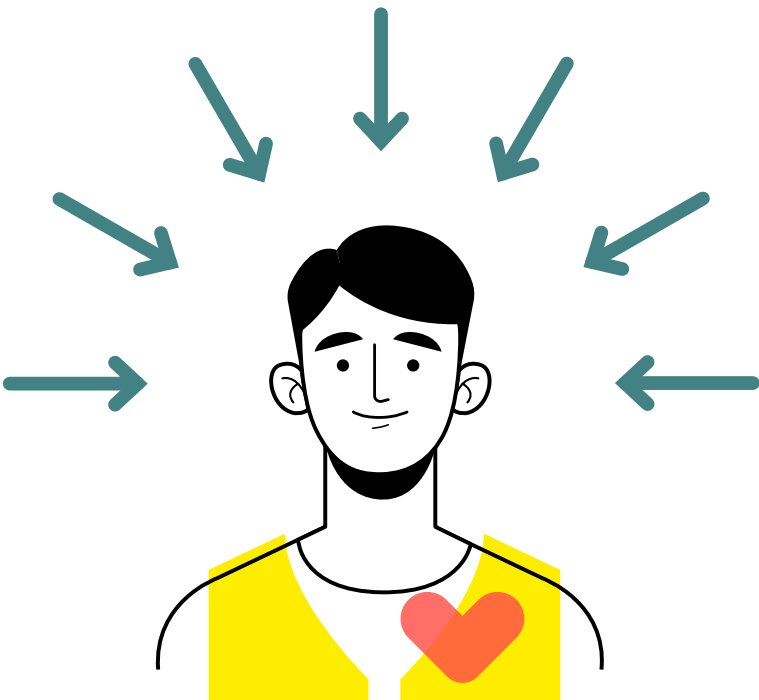

We are aware of the responsibility involved in requesting and managing public aid for the construction of our value propositions and the development of our business.

We ensure that aid requested or received from Public Administrations is used appropriately and that its request is transparent, avoiding altering the conditions for obtaining it, or using it for a purpose other than that for which it was granted.

IT IS UP TO YOU

C
O
D
E
O
F
C
O N
D
U
C
T

FI
NS
A
GR
OU
P